

It takes time to learn how to be a good driver. The Illinois Graduated Driver Licensing (GDL) Program was established to aid young, novice drivers in this effort.

In 2006, I brought together experts from across the State of Illinois to review Illinois' current GDL laws. The recommendations of the Teen Driver Safety Task Force made Illinois a national model regarding GDL safety and have been lauded by such groups as the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the National Transportation Safety Board and the National Safety Council. The recommendations were signed into law in August 2007 and take effect Jan. 1, 2008. These new provisions, along with the involvement of parents, will help teens gain the experience they need for a lifetime of safe, responsible driving.

PARENT-TEEN DRIVING CONTRACT

When it comes to learning the rules of the road, communication between parents and teens is very important. The Secretary of State has created a Parent-Teen Driving Contract that establishes parameters and boundaries between parents and teens to enable young drivers to acquire safe driving habits and skills. The contract is available at www.cyberdriveillinois.com.

OTHER RELATED LAWS — EFFECTIVE JANUARY 2008

- Parental Access to Teen's Driving Record — The parent/legal guardian of a person under age 18 who holds an instruction permit or graduated driver's license may access the minor's driving record free online.
- Driver's License Suspension for Alcohol Consumption — A person under age 21 will receive a three-month driver's license suspension for a court supervision for possession, consumption, purchase or receipt of alcohol. A conviction will result in a one-year suspension of driving privileges.

PARENTAL CONSENT

Drivers ages 16 and 17 must have parent/legal guardian consent in order to obtain a driver's license. The parent/legal guardian must provide written consent at the time of the minor's application at a Driver Services facility. The parent/legal guardian also must show proof that the applicant has had at least 50 hours of practice driving, including 10 hours at night, during the Permit Phase.

A parent/legal guardian may revoke consent for the minor to hold a driver's license at any time, for any reason until the driver turns 18 by contacting the Secretary of State's office. Driving privileges will not be reinstated until the parent/legal guardian who withdrew consent once again provides consent or until the driver turns 18, whichever occurs first. The teen driver must reapply for a driver's license and pay the appropriate fees in order for the license to be reinstated.
